The Woman of the Shoe and Her New House

(As Told in Pictures.)

The woman with all her children who wouldn't fit into the old shoe house, and the carpenter who sawed the tree into boards as soon as it was down. The king's palace. The gatekeeper unlocked the gates and let the king in.

The woman with her children pass through. The doorkeeper haughtily opened the door. The guard at the throne room drew back the velvet curtains and the king received them upon his golden throne. The king could do nothing without the beaver. The old woman and her children went to see the beaver at his request and told him the king wished and down a tree to provide them with boards. The beaver was glad to help and the carpenter sawed the tree into boards as soon as it was down. The king's palace. The gatekeeper unlocked the gates and let the king in.

NORTH WATERFORD

Death of Herbert Lord—Cars Damaged—W. R. C. Inspected—Honor Roll.

Herbert Lord, 78 years of age, died at his home in North Waterford, Oct. 25. He was a member of the W. R. C. and a member of the North Waterford Fire Department. Heard and Seen at Advertiser Office

Celia Crooker brought in a child's white knitted mitten which she found Saturday near Apple's Restaurant on Main St.

E. E. Andrews, 33 Spruce St., Watertown, Mass., writes: "Have been at the farm seven months and like it. It is so quiet, haven't had a sick minute nor lost a feed. Can't do much, but pretty comfortable."

Judge W. R. Pattangall is authority on saying about $35,000,000 is the loss in 37 State and National Bank failures this State. He is of the opinion that eventually that 75 per cent will be paid on interest accounts and 25 per cent on commercial accounts.

Percy Kimball of Waterford called Saturday morning. He told us of seeing a large flock of geese while coming down by the Country Club and as he reached Norway Lake the flock took to the water. He said it was the largest flock he ever saw and estimated that there were between seventy-five and one hundred.

We have a three room, unfurnished rent to let on the first floor of the Ryerson building. It is a pleasant rent, sunny and bright, newly papered and painted, electric lights and bath. It is not suitable for a large family, but just the place for a man and wife. If interested, call at Advertiser Office and look it over.

Don Seitz: "I see you have listed the Blue Eagle; presume as a return for the snow-shoe order. Still tugging at our bootstraps, so to speak, but really paying for the dishonesties of the boom period like A. H. Wiggins' $225,000 salary as head of the Chase bank and a hundred thousand dollars for life thereafter."

All sorts of articles have been brought in from time to time, found in and around Norway, but the latest is some false teeth which arrived Tuesday, picked up on Lower Main Street a short while ago. Read over the Intelligence Column and you will find it is interesting reading to see what is wanted, what is for sale and what is for rent as well as lost and found, etc.

Ex-Congressman Don Partridge was in Rockland the other night. He talked so well a marked copy of the Courier-Gazette was sent us. "The Hills Ahead" was the subject and was handled in a graceful and easy way. He admitted the Constitution was not infallible and must be changed to suit conditions and hoped the time would come when problems could be solved by the home people and stirring passions soothed. The address was sponsored by the Baptist Men's League of that city.

Done in a typographically artistic manner and preserved for 78 years is a copy of "The Laws of Maine Concerning Drinking Houses and Tippling Shops." It was published by B. Thurston, 82 Exchange St., Portland, size is 3 1/2 x 5 1/2 inches with yellow covers and contains 62 pages of the existing temperance laws. Price $5. per hundred or 10 cents a copy.

It is set in nonpareil and agate type, carefully indexed and printed on rag paper. Its publisher has an ad on the last outside cover page.

Mrs. C. M. Corson who lives on the Walter Buck farm, Norway, Route 2, writes: Here is a queer piece of news: We have a rose bush that has begun to blossom again. It had eight blossoms on it, and has a lot of buds. I could not get around to make some mock honey this summer (and I was anxious to as I had never made any) so I and my little niece, Gladys Corson went hunting for clover. We found plenty of red clover but found it quite impossible to find the white, but finally we had enough and two over, so we picked our roses and we have the nicest honey now. We thought it much more fun to make it at this time of year."

Don C. Seitz of New York says: "Speaking of things in general, I may observe that with the abolition of Prohibition early in December before the recognition of Russia, which is slated to take place about the same time, the country will get the gift that the N. R. A. has failed to give it. The latter has been hung up to place the Republican campaign fund on the dry law. I am assured from a high source that it is going through. We have been cutting off noses and long and the reaction has become serious."

Mrs. Charlotte S. Hunting of Welchville was a caller, Saturday afternoon and promised to submit for our antique writer a nice lot of antique documents from Plymouth, Mass., where she resided many years. Many of the time-worn paper and bear dates a generation or two before the Revolutionary War. She was born in Oxford eighty years ago and is familiar with the history of the town. She called attention to Soule's Tavern on the East Oxford road as the homestead of her great grandfather. The hostelry entertained many prominent guests traveling by stage from Portland and Paris Hill. We might add she traces her family ancestry to Capt. Miles Standish and other Pilgrim Fathers and Mothers.

Hon. Rufus W. Shaw of Houlton writes Elgin A. Greenleaf of Norway as follows: "I noticed a squib in the paper about your wanderings and was pleased to learn that you are hale and hearty at eighty. I am one of the few living men who can help you prove some of the lies you have told about hunting. It was thirty-five years ago this fall that we were at Fred Stimpson's camp on Uncolus Lake and we certainly had a lot of fun. "You came to the camp one night and had a lot of story about shooting both the fore legs of a deer. We all allowed that was a hunter's lie and the next morning I went with you to get the deer. You showed me where he started to run across the road ahead of you and had to jump a windfall, just as he crooked his knees to go over it you fired and he bulled broke the bones in both his forward legs and I saw the deer and helped you to prove your case to the boys."

"I have forgotten the names of the men who were there, but your friend, the hardy hunter I went with you and the old hunter were present with Fred and Dr. George Nickerson."

"It was next fall that we were caught in the tornado while crossing the Lake and had to land two miles away from the camp and walk around. Well those were happy days and I kept run of you during the years that you were at Moosehead and then I lost run of you."

Fred went away last year and the old fellows are fast leaving for the happy hunting grounds. It will be our turn soon."

Note: Mr. Greenleaf fails to recall the name of the Bangor hardware man but the banjo player was Charles Morris of the Morris Bros. Musical Troupe who stormed the country in those days.

BETHEL-GROVER HILL
Mr. and Mrs. John Trefethen from Portsmouth, N. H. were guests at Clyde Whitman's last week.
A. J. Peaslee was a recent visitor at Lawrence Lord's in Gilead.
Mrs. Lillian V. Whitman and daughter, Dorothy, from Medford, Mass. were here a few days last week and Mrs. Whitman closed her camp for the season.
Mrs. Hazel Trol from California has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Cleve Waterhouse.
Hugh Brown was the first lucky hunter here to shoot a deer.

We are beginning to feel neglected. A glance at the left shows that towns have failed to pay for the printing of their reports. Maybe the "New Deal" and the R. F. C. haven't got to those towns as yet. How so?

Ray Leeman, caretaker of Trout Pond Preserve, formerly Allen's Pond, at East Stoneham, was a recent caller. He says it seems that the trout had left the pond (died or run away—none are seen any more).

EAST OTISFIELD

Picked Strawberries Oct. 20—Birthday Surprise—Harvest Sunday to be observed—Injured While Riding Horseback.

Charles Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Omar Francis and baby, Nancy of New Gloucester visited Mr. Smith's brother, William Smith and family last Sunday.

Miss Elsie Peaco picked a pint of strawberries last Saturday which was enjoyed for supper by the family. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Klesman of Freeburg visited a few days last week with her sister, Mrs. Lindsey Peaco.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Greenleaf and daughter, Esther, from Lewiston called on their mother, Mrs. Hattie Greenleaf, Tuesday.

Mrs. Martha Linnell has returned to her daughter's in Somerville for the winter. Between fifty and sixty friends gathered Friday evening, Oct. 26, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Peaco to help Mrs. Peaco, (Lillian) celebrate the closing of her birthday. Games and cards were enjoyed, also instrumental music. Miss Irene Freeman and Mrs. Pearl Peaco was a very pleasing part of the entertainment. The best of course was saved for the last number, which was sandwiches, cake and coffee. Mrs. Peaco was the recipient of gifts, cards, etc. At a late hour friends wished Lillian many happy returns of the day and bade her good night.

Miss Sadie McAllister has been home from school, sick with a bad cold. The whole family have had colds the past few weeks.

George Barrows and son, George Jr. have returned home from Arrostoch, where they have been at work the past few weeks. Next Sunday, October 29th, will be observed as Harvest Sunday at the East Otisfield Baptist Church. Services at 10.30. The people are to bring in vegetables and fruit, canned goods or any offering which they can bring. George Barrows Jr. while horse back riding last Monday was thrown off his horse and broke his collar bone, requiring the aid of a physician. The stirrup on his saddle broke causing the accident.

HARRISON

Express Office Moved—Death of Former Resident—Pet Pig Much Admired—Death of Leonard Carlsley.

Mrs. Herbert Denison, Mrs. J. P. Blake and Mrs. Phil E. Spaulding attended the annual meeting and banquet of the Red Cross at the Eastland in Portland, last week, Wednesday.

The office of the American Railway Express has been changed from the old railroad station to the Purinton Garage on Front Street with Phil E. Spaulding in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith of Oklahoma have arrived at the home of their son on Main Street, where they will spend the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Rex Rolfe and family have moved from the Ivory Purinton house to the Temple Block. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rogers have moved into the Purinton rent from the Tvin houses on Waterford Road.

Mrs. Abbie Purinton who has been in South Portland with her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Fagan returned Monday to her home here. She then closed the place for the winter and went the last of the week to Wintrop, where she will spend the next few months with her son, Chester D. Curtis, also a grand daughter, Patricia Curtis. Funeral services were held Sunday at two o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar O. Spaulding and daughter Florence spent the week end at Phillips, Mrs. Spaulding's former home. Mrs. F. Rogers entertained at a Halloween party on Tuesday evening at her home on Front Street.

Mrs. Walter Smith, who has spent the summer in town, went this week to Springfield, with her son, Victor Mills, and Mrs. Mills, where she will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. John Keene spent the past week in Waterville, Winolet and Rumford. Mrs. Keene has a pet pig which is greatly admired by the townspeople. The pig follows Mrs. Keene like a dog everywhere and has a nursing bottle which he loves dearly. Moving pictures were made of him last week by our local photographer, Edgar O. Spaulding. He is surely some pig and well trained. He recently spent several weeks in Rumford.

Leonard Carlsley, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Carlsley of South Harrison, passed away at his home in Pittsburg, Pa., Friday morning. He was a member of the Young Men's Christian Association of this vicinity who are mourning the passing of this young man. His health had been poor for several years but this summer he attended the Chicago fair and seemed much better. He is survived by his widow and his parents, also a son, Richard Carlsley. Burial was in Pittsburg.

Miss Edith Russell of Bridgton, daughter of Chester Russell of Harrison, is in Boston, where she will undergo a thorough operation. Miss Russell has been employed in Norway for the past few months.

SOUTH PARIS-CLARK HILL

Mrs. Jennie Lawrence spent the day with her cousin, Edna Keniston, the 20th. Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Titcomb of Auburn visited with relatives the past week, his cousin, Laura Burnell and her nephew, William Bailey of the High School faculty.

Ida Bonney and Bird Haynes of Sumner and Carrie Hall were at Laura Burnell's, Sunday. Hill Kenney and wife are living with her father, J. A. Kenney. George Kenney and Herbert Woodworth are getting some apples at North West Norway where Mr. Kenney used to live. Dear Fore Street, how much do you "reckon" those bags cost a yard?

CELESTINE LEMON TAPIOCA

1-2 cup quick-cooking tapioca
1-2 teaspoon salt
1 quart boiling water
1 cup sugar
1-2 cup lemon juice (2 lemons)
Grated rind 1 lemon
1 cup cream, whipped
Add tapioca and salt to water, and cook in double boiler 15 minutes, or until tapioca is clear, stirring frequently. Add sugar, lemon juice, and lemon rind. Cool. Fold in whipped cream. Chill until thickened. File lightly in sherbet glasses. Garnish with raspberries. Serves eight.

LONELY AT TWILIGHT

When I am sitting by the fire-side As the twilight shadows fall, I feel so sad and lonely With no one to hear my call.

I was very happy once, But only a few short years, God called my loving husband home And left me sad in tears.

Time helps to heal all sorrows But I never can forget The many happy hours I spent Still linger with me yet.

Although the road ahead of us, May be long and hard to climb, If we stride faithfully onward, We will reach our goal sometime.

Every cloud has a silver lining, After the rain comes the sun, To make our pathway brighter And cheer for the lonely one.
